

COVER AT LAST FOR THE MATURE TRAVELER

Rock Insurance is offering a new travel insurance product with Europ Assistance which provides comprehensive cover with no upper age limit ensuring UK travel agents have more flexibility to cover more of their customers.

The new product enters the market at a time when other insurance providers are withdrawing cover for older travelers, preferring to cater for under 75s and in many instances under 65s only.

Antony Martin, Managing Director at Rock Insurance comments: "We have listened to the feedback from the travel agents we work with in the UK and endeavored to offer solutions where our competitors cannot offer cover. We still believe that travel agents are in the best position to offer travel insurance and, since an agent's typical customer base consists of older travelers, agents should be in a position to offer them an insurance policy and earn themselves commission."

The new product offers two levels of cover (standard and premier), highly competitive rates and options to add golf, wedding and timeshare cover.
