

FURTHER EXPANSION FOR ROCK INSURANCE

Rock Insurance has recently undergone further expansion taking on five new staff and relocating their headquarters to larger offices in the Gatwick area.

Commenting on the recent recruitment, Antony Martin, Managing Director, said: 'Now in our third successful year of trading we have brought in new team members to enable us to grow our business further. The new recruits bring with them a wealth of experience in their respective fields and will help us to develop into new areas of the travel insurance business.'

Sharon McMahon joins Rock Insurance as Business Development Manager from AON and previously Mondial. Sharon's extensive experience in new technologies will facilitate Rock's planned technological development.

Susie Cross, Rock's newly appointed Account Manager, joins the company from Natwest Bank. Susie will provide an office based point of contact for Rock's growing client base.

Other new recruits include David Hornsby, joining the company from British Airways as Financial Administrator, and the newly appointed Customer Services Advisers – Hayley Spinks and Fiona Drayton.

The company's new headquarters will be based at:

6 Magellan Terrace
Gatwick Road
Crawley
West Sussex
RH10 9PJ
