

ROCK INSURANCE WINS THREE YEAR AIRMILES CONTRACT

Rock Insurance has been chosen to provide travel insurance policies to the AirMiles Travel Company for a three year period following an open market tender.

Rock offered a comprehensive package for AirMiles including travel insurance, service back up and a state of the art technology solution. The AirMiles policies will be underwritten by Europ Assistance.

Mark Oakes, Director of Travel at The AirMiles Travel Company, said: We are now a full service travel company offering not only a vast range of flights and hotels but also holidays from the UK's leading travel companies. As such, we required a company that is committed to providing both excellent customer value and the highest quality assistance at all times. We are confident that Rock Insurance, in partnership with Europ Assistance, will be able to offer us true strength and long term stability.'

Antony Martin, Managing Director, Rock Insurance, added: 'Rock Insurance is delighted to have secured such a prestigious client and we look forward to providing AirMiles with the quality service and products that have become synonymous with our company name.'

For information about Rock Insurance please call 0870 160 2555.

-end-

For editorial enquiries please contact Annie Hault at Spark PR on 07976 719808.

17 December 2004